Speakers

Dr Melanie Landau is Lecturer and Research fellow at the Australian Centre for Jewish Civilisation, Monash University. Her research and community activities cover areas of feminist analysis of rabbinic text, women's leadership and interfaith dialogue and peace-building.

Captain Jason Davies-Kildea is a Salvation Army Officer currently appointed as Social Program Secretary for the Melbourne Central Division. In 2007 he was awarded a Churchill Fellowship to study faith-based social services internationally.

Jeneefar Makbool's passion is environment and sustainable living. As a volunteer project manager with Mercy Mission, his work to introduce water saving projects to several masjids (mosques) in Melbourne was shortlisted for the SaveWater Awards in 2009.
